Political Cartoons

- Opinion pieces about political conditions, events or people; drawn commentary - such as editorials or gloss in written text.
- Caricatures are an audio-visual source that complement other historical sources.
- Collections of printed caricatures from newspapers and magazines on specific politicians or specific topics
- Drawings available in newspaper quality and thus reproducible only to a limited extent; moreover, without exploitation rights
- Caricature fond of a cartoonist incl. original drawings, sketches and press cuttings (proofs of printing), including copyright to the drawings

- Party archive of the Christian Social Union (CSU), a conservative party, governing Bavaria since 1945 with a three-year interruption 1954-1957.
- The CSU exists only in Bavaria, one of the 16 states of the Federal Republic of Germany.
- In the national parliament, the German Bundestag, it always forms a parliamentary group with the CDU, which does not run in Bavaria but in all the other 15 states.
- The CDU and CSU are sister parties

Herbert Kolfhaus

- Born on 10 October 1916 in Frankfurt am Main
- Died on 17 January 1987 in Munich
- 1936 Abitur, military service and labour service
- 1938 studies history, newspaper science and literature in Munich
- 1940-1945 Soldier
- 1948 begins to draw political caricatures as an autodidact

Drawings 1948 - 1987

The USA and Great Britain, which had already united their occupation zones in 1947 to form the Bizone, allied with France to form a common economic area. In March 1948 the Trizone was built. This union created the basis for the foundation of a West German state, which resulted in the division of Germany in 1949.

The earliest drawing as a press clipping from 1948.

seines Faches erschienen ist.«

Golden Bridge to Peace

The Israeli-Egyptian peace treaty was signed on March 26, 1979 in the US capital Washington by Israeli Prime Minister Menachem Begin and Egypt's President Anwar as-Sadat. Like the previous Camp David Accords, US President Jimmy Carter signed the peace treaty as a witness.
